BORIS THE SPIDER

A Journal of Duplicitous Doings,
 Raw Power, and Naked Greed
 "Oh, what a tangled web we weave
 When first we practice to deceive!"
 Sir Walter Scott-

(#248)

WIZARD'S QUEST To Begin!

We're replacing SCRABBLE with our first ever WIZARD'S QUEST (WZQ) game. See Reference 1 for proposed pbem rules. We have Ron Fisher, Deb Anderson, Alan Bargender and Bill Lenoir signed up and could take two more, perhaps from the recently disenfranchised WZQ community (see below).

"Chryses" will end next time and PUERTO RICO should (needing only a Mayor, Builder, or maybe a Captain phase in Turn 15 to trigger the end), so 'tis time to sign up for new gamestarts. One two-pager like MERCHANT OF VENUS or SILVERTON or a couple of one-pagers like DUNE, KREMLIN, SETTLERS OF CATAN, or AIR BARON would work. A new HISTORY OF THE WORLD, perhaps 2nd Edition, would also work.

IMMEDIATE GAME OPENINGS:

COLONIAL DIPLOMACY: ~~Japan may be available~~
CIRCUS MAXIMUS: Benjtos is available.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: "Man's highest joy is in victory: to conquer one's enemies, to pursue them, to deprive them of their possessions, to make their beloved weep" -- Temujin aka Ghengis Khan

NEW ON THE WEBSITE: The transcript of the SCRABBLE game has been moved to the finished section and the board expunged from the maps. Map for WIZARD'S QUEST has been added.

The tournament I've been running at WBC/AvalonCon since 1999, WIZARD'S QUEST, didn't make the cut for the World Boardgaming Championships (Reference 2) this year. I'm going to try to hold an unofficial tourney at WBC, perhaps Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning, if I can get enough interest. Starting a pbem tourney is another means of keeping WZQ viable for WBC play, but there hasn't been much enthusiasm from the most likely participants, the recent Tourney players with e-mail addresses. One of the purposes of the new WZQ game in these pages is to work out any bugs in the system.

Tom Butcher is looking for some 18EU, 1826, 1835, 1856, and 1830 (Coalfields) players to flesh out his zine a bit. See p 18 for address.

PICTURE OF THE MONTH: Ms Nar about to deliver a Super-Sudsy Bomb to her minions, the aquanuts (Boris, TJ, & Kid K no doubt).

BOOS & KUDOS

The Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award goes this month to Jack Shacklett for his Press datelined Constantinople in "Boris XVIII".

This month's Ms Nar Super-Sudsy Bomb is lobbed at Peter Boyum and John Quigley for late orders.

AUSTRIA ENCIRCLED!

Spring 1904

XVIII
2005F

CLIFFHOME: Although the three Austrian armies have formed a hedgehog in their home centers, they find themselves surrounded by seven potentially hostile units. If the four powers controlling them can agree on a plan of action, Austria will be no more. But how do you split three centers four ways? Is it really in Germany's and Italy's best interest to have a united R/T in the East and a united E/F in the West? Well, maybe not that united a West as the French and British don't seem to be communicating as evidenced by Britain's misplaced support.

BERLIN: Very tired German troops take vacation in Tyrolian country side. Relay guys, I promise not to rape any women there. The Germans will go home next turn.

Constantinople: Turkish Armies are pressing forward to capture the Austrians who have caused the grate cheese scandal. They and the Italians hope to join forces with the Russians already seizing the beer, wine, cheese, schnitzels, and - Oh yes! documents in Vienna.

Pope to Doge: Nice bribe! I bet we all wish we had the cash to maintain units and to toss round like that.

Pope to Austria: Cover your home. We'd hate to lose you at this stage. And hate even more for the Venice to get your cities and income!

Pope to Doge & his Turkish lackey: Too late. I'm now committed against you.

Pope to France & Austria: Let's not stop pushing now. We should focus on taking Padua, Treviso and Venice before the Doge takes something else to stay alive. I'm focusing on Padua first since it's the closest. Button up things in the north and let's push on.

Green to Orange: My apologies my friend. I had planned that empire for Red but he got first choice and took that option away from me. Had I even guessed he might have drawn Russia and thus got to go first I might have done things a bit differently but you were the next closest to me and to even have a chance I felt I had to give the "gift" to you. As a result Red probably wins this one. So again, my apologies.

Green to Red: Nice draw at the right time. You can probably guess who you would have gotten had you not kept from the press preceeding.

From Orange to Green--You could have kept the card you gave me or given it to Ebony. I think that other players may have a chance to catch the Red menace. You just doomed me to last place. No problem.
